

John COLLINS Jr.

FAMILY HISTORY
Documentation

John COLLINS died and buried at sea

Age	Date:	Fact:	Document or Source of
31	1864	John Collins Jr. son of John COLLINS & Priscilla SHEFFORD died on Atlantic Ocean 3wks out from England at age of 31	of fact: 1. Obituary of his wife Mary Goddard Collins DAVIS
		"Hudson" Ship left London 3 June 1864 + 21 d 24 June = John Collins Jr died 27.	2. See FGS from Erva B. North 920 Cliff St. Lander Wyoming

Wasatch Nonagenarian
Utah Pioneer of 1864,
Is Buried at Heber

MRS. MARY C. DAVIS.

HEBER, Jan. 16.—(Special).—Funeral services were held in Wasatch stake tabernacle, Friday for Mrs. Mary C. Davis, 96, a pioneer of this valley who died of old age Wednesday at her home at the Davis Ranch, north of Heber.

Services were under the direction of Bishop H. Clay Cummings of the Heber Second ward. Prayers were by Patriarch John A. Fortie and Priest G. Frank Ryan. Music was by a mixed quartet, Maybell Moulton, Donna Montgomery, Earl Smith and Frank Haroy; vocal duets, Maybell Moulton and Donna Montgomery. The speakers were William Lindsay, Patriarch William Daybell of Charleston, V. L. Halliday of Salt Lake, President Joseph B. Murdock and Bishop Cummings. There was a large attendance and an abundance of flowers. Mornut Moulton, a grandson of the deceased, dedicated the grave in Heber City cemetery.

Mrs. Mary C. Davis was born at Wiltshire, England, Aug. 2, 1827 and came to Utah in 1864, residing at their ranch in North Heber practically ever since. Her first husband, John Collins, died and was buried at sea. She married William Davis shortly after arriving in Utah.

Surviving children are William, George, Thomas and Robert Davis, Mrs. Mary Ann Smith, Mrs. George E. Jordan and Mrs. John Jones, all of Heber; 37 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and five great-great-grandchildren.

She was an active member of the church and was always ready to help in times of sickness, trouble or sorrow, in her community.